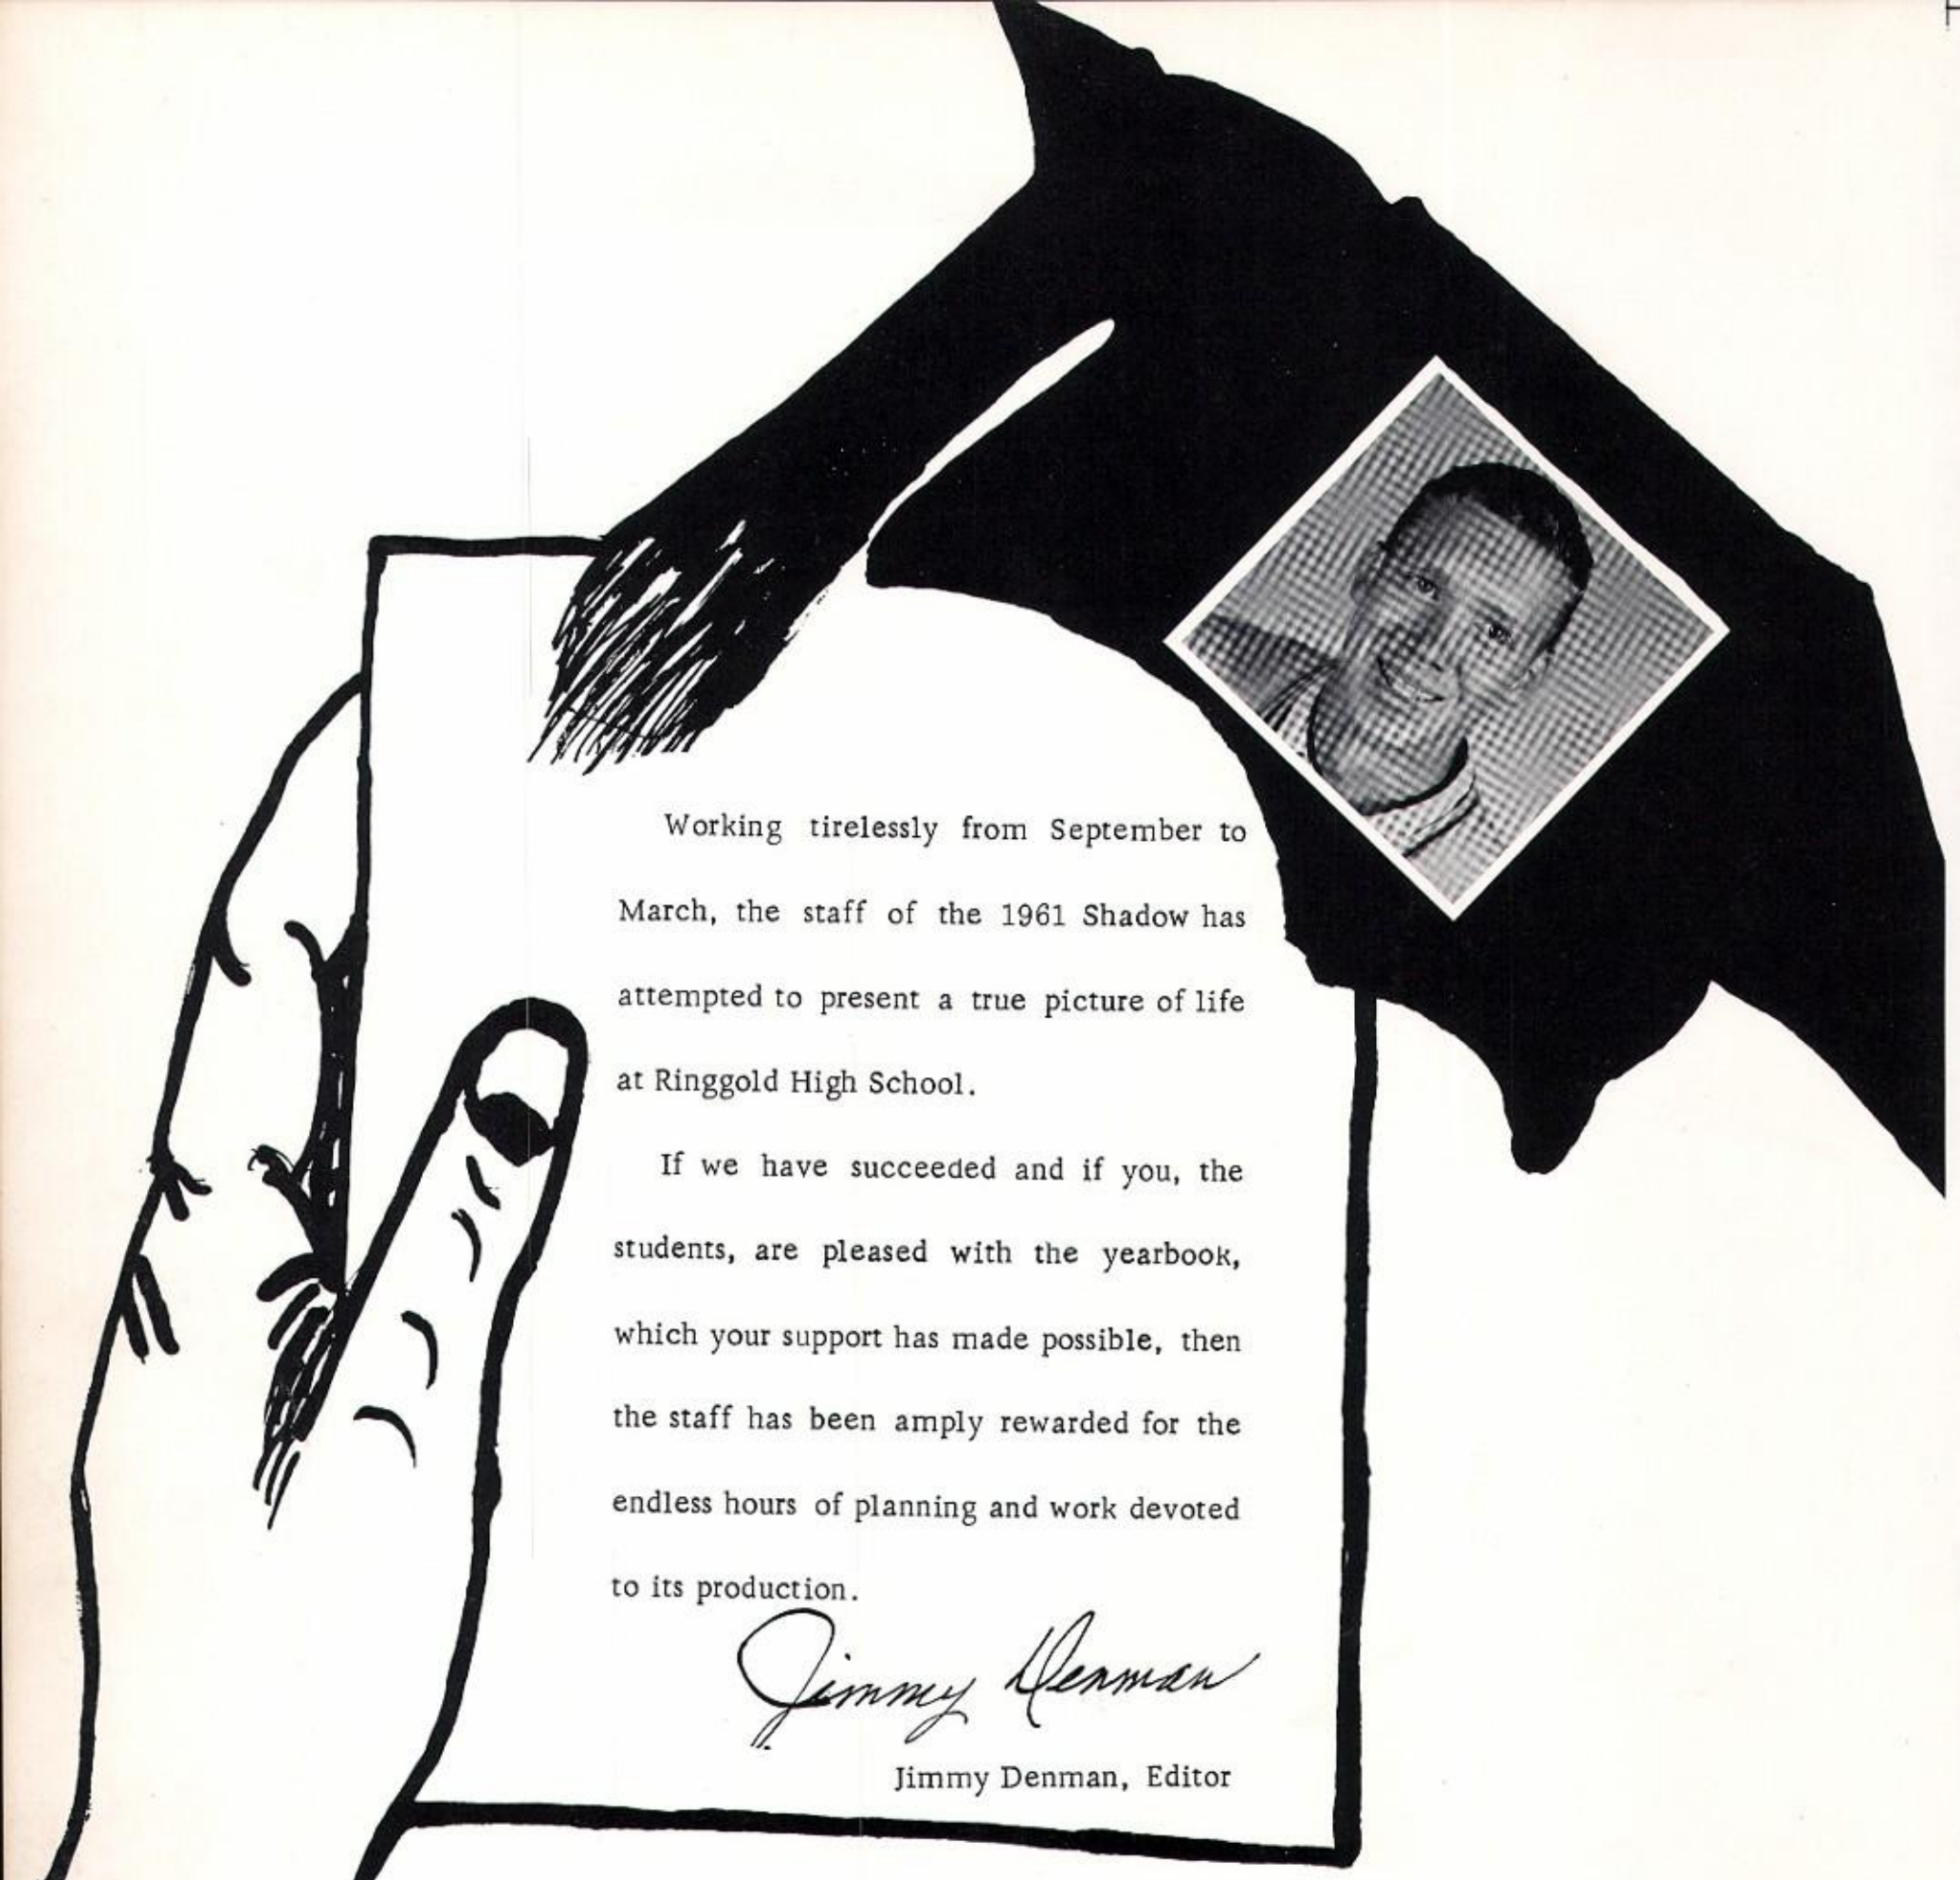
Volume XI
Ringgold High School
Ringgold, Georgia



Working tirelessly from September to March, the staff of the 1961 Shadow has attempted to present a true picture of life at Ringgold High School.

If we have succeeded and if you, the students, are pleased with the yearbook, which your support has made possible, then the staff has been amply rewarded for the endless hours of planning and work devoted to its production.

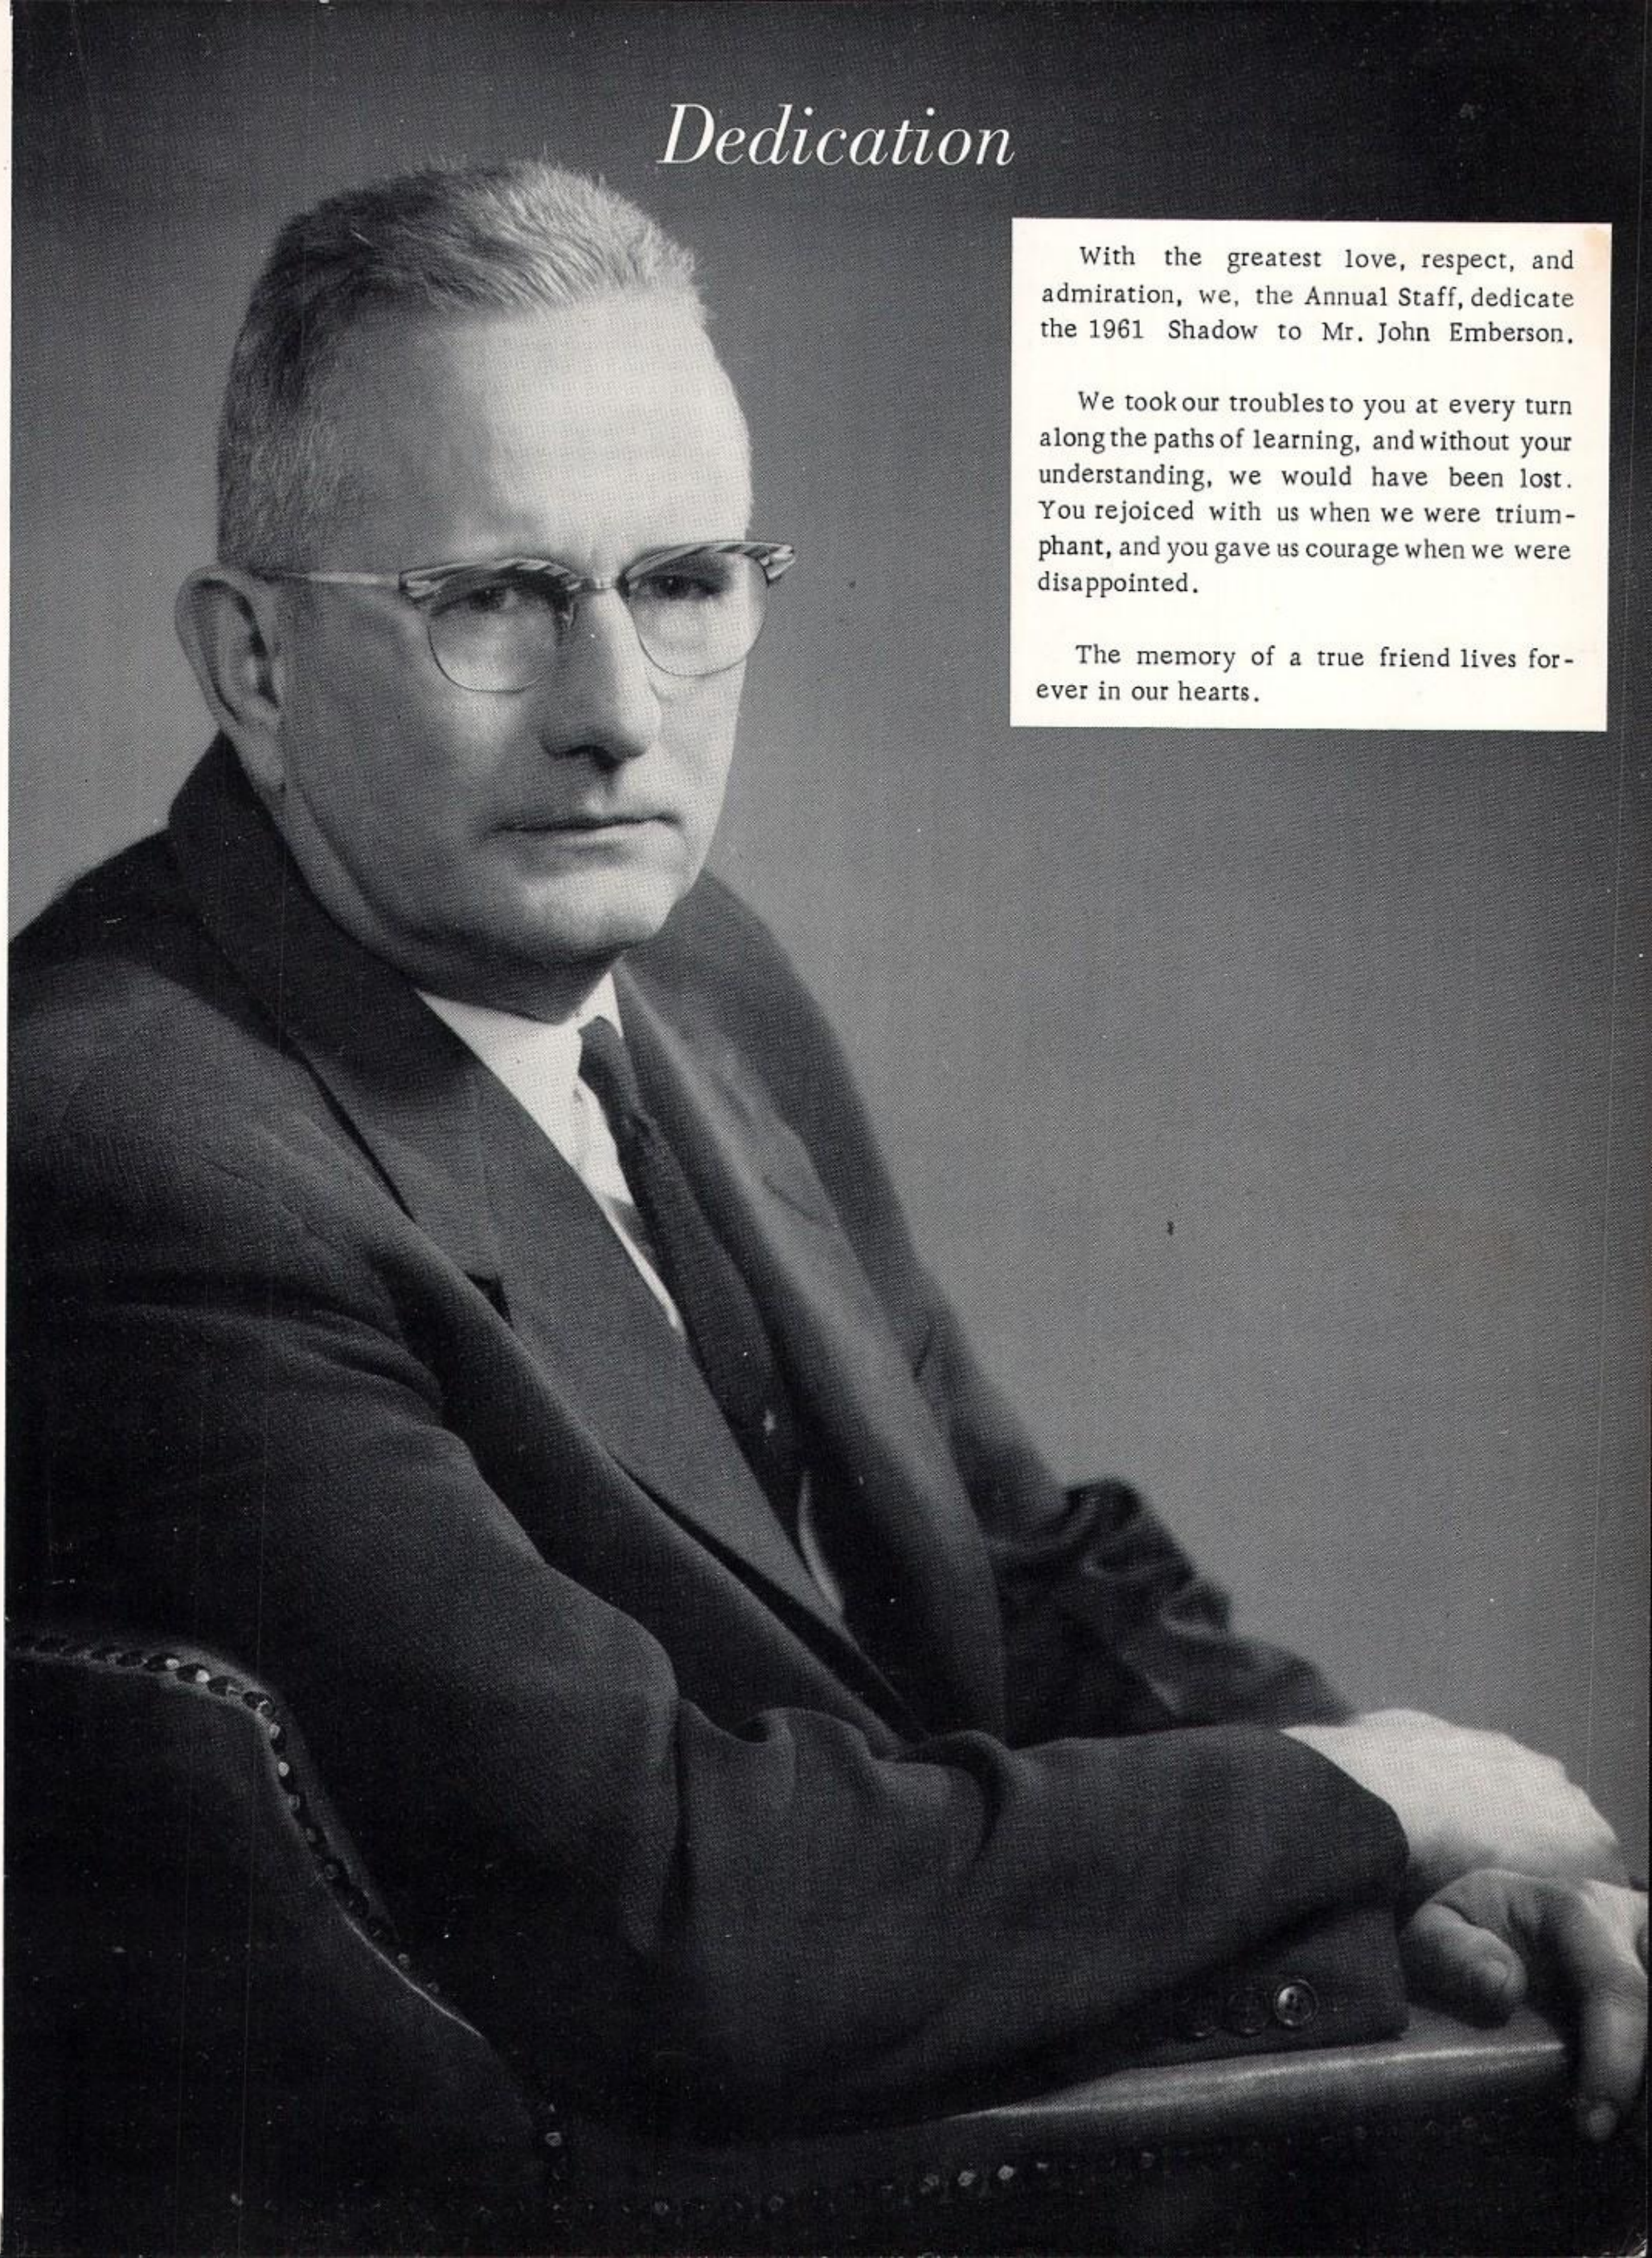
Ringgold High School

Alma Mater

In the heart of dear old Dixie
'Neath the white oak trees,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater,
Ringgold, hail to thee.

Alma Mater, Alma Mater
True and loyal be;
Ever crowned with grace and glory.
Ringgold, hail to thee.

Dedication



With the greatest love, respect, and admiration, we, the Annual Staff, dedicate the 1961 Shadow to Mr. John Emberson.

We took our troubles to you at every turn along the paths of learning, and without your understanding, we would have been lost. You rejoiced with us when we were triumphant, and you gave us courage when we were disappointed.

The memory of a true friend lives forever in our hearts.

Principal's Message

You, the students of Ringgold High School, are the school's greatest resource. How well parents and teachers assist you in your development will determine the quality of our communities of tomorrow. A life rich with opportunity for achievement and service beckons each of you.

The world demands a high degree of competency from the youth of today. Accept your responsibilities seriously and make certain that you obtain the most from your present opportunities.

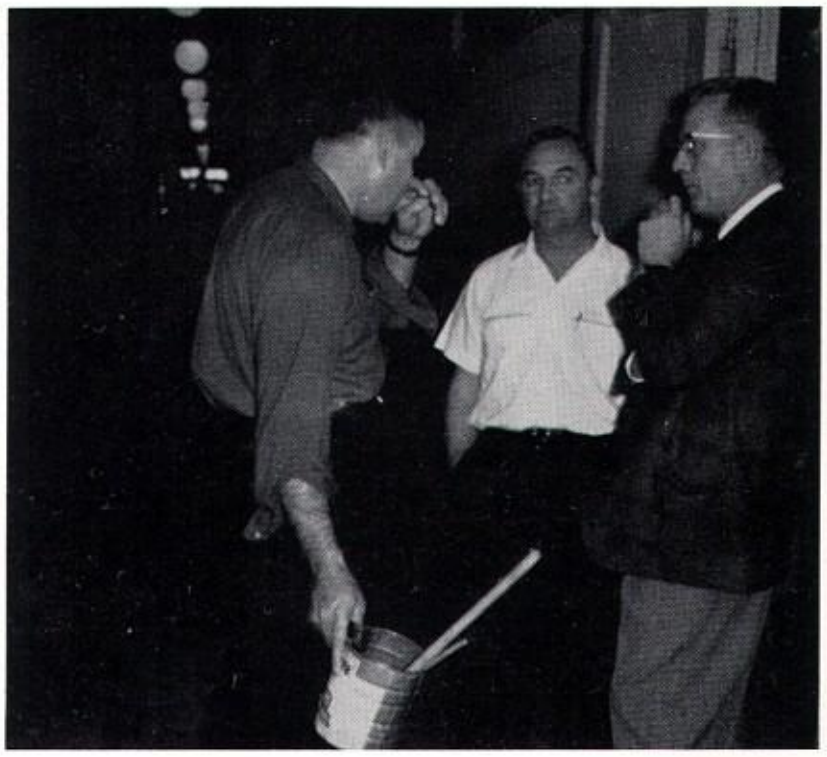
Scenes at RHS

Boy, look at those legs!

Miss Taylor cleans up for a teachers' meeting.

It looks as if the majorettes won.



Thinking out a problem.

Mr. Pearson sings "She'll Be Coming Around the Mountain"

Look at Mr. Johnson's long, black hair.

Look at Mr. Emberson. Isn't he a doll!
